Open Port Area

With the opening of Jemulpo Port in 1883, modern open port streets were created in Incheon. Nowadays, it is popular among tourists for its museums, exhibition halls, hotels, and unique cafes, allowing them to feel and understand the old-time Korean culture. The Open Port offers a variety of things to enjoy. Hanji craftwork gives visitors the opportunity to make artifacts for everyday living using Hanji (Korean paper), while dressing up in costumes from the Open Port times and taking black and white photographs help-document your cherished.
