Consequences of non-compliance for National Anti-Doping Organization of Nigeria (Nigeria NADO)

1. The Nigeria NADO will lose its WADA Privileges, until the reinstatement conditions set out below are met (see the International Standard for Code Compliance by Signatories (ISCCS) Article B.3.1 (a)), i.e.:
  - a. In accordance with the relevant provisions of WADA's Statutes, the Nigerian NADO's Representatives (as defined in the Code) will be ineligible to hold any WADA office or any position as a member of any WADA board or committee or other body (including but not limited to membership on WADA's Foundation Board, the Executive Committee, any Standing Committee, and any other committee).
  - b. The Nigeria NADO will be ineligible to host any event hosted or organized or co-hosted or co-organized by WADA.
  - c. The Nigeria NADO's Representatives will be ineligible to participate in any WADA Independent Observer Program or WADA Outreach Program or other WADA activities.
  - d. The Nigeria NADO will not receive any WADA funding (either directly or indirectly) relating to the development of specific activities or participation in specific programs.
2. The Nigeria NADO's Representatives will be ineligible to sit as members of the boards or committees or other bodies of any Signatory (or its members) or association of Signatories, until the reinstatement conditions set out below are met (see ISCCS Article B.3.1 (d));
3. Nigeria will not be awarded the right to host regional, continental and World Championships, and Events organized by Major Event Organizations, until the reinstatement conditions set out below are met (see ISCCS Article B.3.1 (e.1));
4. Nigeria's flag will not be flown at regional, continental and World Championships, and Events, organized by Major Event Organizations (other than the Olympic Games and Paralympic Games), until the reinstatement conditions set out below are met (see ISCCS Article 3.1 (e.2)); and
5. Nigeria's flag will not be flown at the Olympic Games and Paralympic Games, until the reinstatement conditions set out below are met (see ISCCS Article B.3.1 (e.3)).

The CRC also recommended, in accordance with ISCCS Article 11.2.1, that the Nigeria NADO be required to satisfy the outstanding critical requirement and to comply with the above-mentioned consequences in order to be reinstated to the list of compliant Signatories.

If the Nigeria NADO has not met the condition of reinstatement within 12 months of the imposition of the consequences of non-compliance, all of the Nigeria NADO's testing and result management related Anti-Doping Activities will be subject to Supervision by an Approved Third Party, at the Nigeria NADO's expense, including up to six (6) site visits a year, with all costs to be paid in advance (where known) by the Nigeria NADO (see ISCCS Article B.3.1 (c)).
